From diagnostics to data

Innovations that drive decisive actions

IDEXX has been advancing poultry diagnostics and flock management ever since we launched the first commercial ELISA more than 32 years ago. Our global network of scientists works together to develop proven solutions that:

Reduce the need for repeat testing.

Our assays give you optimal sensitivity and specificity, and consistent batch-to-batch performance.

Streamline testing.

Our standardized, ready-to-use reagents support higher throughput, with less time and error.

Support decisive action.

Our software turns population-based data into decision-making information to help you manage flock health confidently and efficiently.

Get the answers you need quickly.

Speak with our team of dedicated customer and technical support people for information about any IDEXX test.

Across the world poultry market, India ranks 6th (FAOSTAT rankings). Poultry, an extremely complicated industry in itself, the sector consists of many different levels of production, including feed Mills, Feed supplements & pharma manufacturers, hatcheries & breeding farms, and processing plants. The sub-classes for production are divided into meat and egg production.

The sector has an extremely important place in terms of food safety and nutrition, is the fastest growing agricultural sub-sector, especially in developing countries. The factors such as population growth, income level growth, and urbanization will contribute to the growth of the sector in the future. The poultry sector has a market value of $ 310.7 billion in 2020, & has a growth of $ 322.55 billion in 2021 and record at compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 3.8%. The market is expected to hit $ 422.97 billion till 2025 with a CAGR of 7%.

With the vision to capture the growing Poultry & Feed market of India, we have compile the special 2023 edition of Poultry In India Book, in which we have tried to explore the section-wise contact information of Poultry Establishment in India, along with research articles, project report, case studies, statistics data etc.

We trust our coming edition will also get the same acceptance & support from our readers and advertisers.

I once again take the privilege of thanking to our advertisers, readers, friends & well-wishers for their trust and support extended to us during all the years.
